

A PASSAGE THROUGH THE NEW TESTAMENT

Part One “The Harmonized Gospels”

by J.S. Smith

The Four Gospels Harmonized

Authors: Matthew, Mark, Luke, John

Four men were charged with recording the events and teaching associated with the life of the Messiah, Christ Jesus of Nazareth. Each comes from a different background and communicates the gospel message from a unique perspective.

Matthew, or Levi, was an apostle, but had served as a tax collector prior to his call. He likely wrote from Syrian Antioch between 58 and 68 A.D. Matthew's Hebrew background lend well to the deeply religious tone of his account. He emphasizes the fulfillment of prophecy in a series of messianic discourses.

Mark probably wrote from Rome between 55 and 65 A.D. Mark writes like a journalist with very concise and pointed records of Christ's life. Mark emphasizes the redemptive work of Christ and the importance of serving God. The Roman pragmatist would have been likely to heed Mark's tone.

Luke was the beloved physician who became a disciple of Christ. He works more scientifically, giving a chronological outline of the Lord's life. Luke writes for the Greek idealist, stressing the perfection of the sacrifice and God's love for all. He probably wrote his gospel between 60 and 68 A.D.

John probably wrote from Ephesus between 80 and 90 A.D.. His work is also quite structured, but contains much material that the others do not. He stresses the deity of Christ and His propitiatory offering.
